Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- This vacancy is for an Operations Officer assigned to the NCTC/Directorate of Operations Support serving within NCTC/DI's Tactics and Technology Group (TTG).
- Research, compile and produce an authoritative, unclassified, periodic publication for private sector technology companies detailing terrorist exploitation and use of social media platforms, and significant trends in terrorism.
- Lead NCTC's line efforts to enhance engagement with the technology sector, through periodic unclassified production, outreach to US Government partners, managing an unclassified online collaborative community, and personal engagement.
- Prepare and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant intelligence issues related to terrorist use of the internet and NCTC's engagement efforts with the technology sector
- Build and leverage diverse collaborative networks within the ODNI and across the IC; maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policymakers, law enforcement agencies, and private industry as appropriate and use these relationships to share information and coordinate analytic assessments.
